Re: Cal Diya

Dear Jack:

Thank you for the information concerning Cal Diya, or whatever his name is. Since you had him registered at one time as Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 30 under the name of Cal Diya, perhaps you can provide us with a description of him. I can not imagine why he was not put on the Confidential File at the time his arrest caused the priest to take the troop out of his church. We do have a Calvin Polyver, which is one of the aliases, listed as an Eagle Scout from Unit 2103, Jackson Heights, New York. We will delete this name from our records and suggest you do the same.

Please return the confidential record sheet as soon as possible, and if any other information develops, we will appreciate having it.

Sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM

DATE February 8, 1960

TO: Basil Starkey
Bob Birkemeier

FROM: Jack Dunkle

SUBJECT: (Personal and Confidential)

The following person under investigation as a Scouter has attached himself to Troop 135, District 2, Queens as a Scoutmaster. He is not registered at this time with the Troop. His name is Cal Diva, 24 years old. He has another alias of Carl Lavista, another alias of Calvin DeVyer and another alias of Cal Divera. His listed address is 34-08 81 Street, Jackson Heights, N.Y. He has claimed that he has been registered in the Bronx and in Chicago and I have been informed by the District Executive of District 9 that he was registered at one time as an Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 80, Kew Gardens using the name Cal Divera. At that time he was arrested for impersonating a naval ensign and because of moral charges brought against him by parents. A priest took this troop out of his church. This was sometime in 1959.

He claims he is an Eagle Scout. As far as we know he is not registered at this time.

Approximate description is 6 ft. 3", rather slim, very charming and speaks well. He wears his hair long and it is light in color.

About two weeks ago he was arrested in Queens on moral charges with minor boys brought about by the parents in Troop 135. I understand also that he was arrested by complaints from the Catholic Brigade for moral charges.

According to additional information we can find he was arrested in Battle Creek, Michigan in 1956 for carrying concealed weapons. He was put on probation.

It is recommended by the District Executive of District 2 that he be placed on the Confidential List.

This is all the information I have at this time. If additional information is uncovered I will relay it to you.

Ex-Scoutmaster Held for Jury

A former Jackson Heights Scoutmaster is being held with after the parents of two boys out bail for the Grand Jury complained that he had molested after a hearing this week in their 12-year-old sons. Ridgewood Felony Court. Police reported that DeVyer charges of molesting the morals was arrested in Battle Creek, Mich. in July for carrying a concealed weapon. He was put on probation, they said.
